Strategic Workers Compensation Management

A training program to assist your organisation to understand and effectively manage workers compensation claims, injury management and the return to work process.

Seminars

HR/IR/OH&S & Workers Compensation – The Link

Human Resources, Industrial Relations, OH&S and Workers Compensation issues are inter-related and very difficult to separate. This seminar will help you to understand the relationship between these areas and improve the workplace systems.

Managing Stress in the Workplace

This seminar will provide the framework on how to identify potential stressors in the workplace, steps to take to prevent occurrences and minimise the impact to your business.

Reducing Manual Handling injuries in the workplace

Manual handling accounts for a major portion of workplace injuries. This session looks at the legislative obligations and provides solutions to address this area of impact on your business.

Management OH&S Obligations

All businesses, regardless of industry sector or size, are required to comply with a range of workplace safety requirements. Join us at this practical, information-packed session for an introductory overview of current safety laws and contemporary approaches to risk management in the workplace.

Other Courses

The training sessions and courses listed can be modified to meet your specific needs. These include:

Factors Impacting on Premiums

Are you aware of the factors involved and impacting on your workers compensation premium? This session addresses these issues and provides insight and mitigating strategies on an area of major impact on your business.

Integrating Risk Management

Are you overwhelmed by the management of safety in your workplace? Need assistance to identify, assess and monitor these risks? This problem solving session will provide you with options to manage this, essential but often neglected, component of your business.
