Introducing Vero Workers Compensation Medium Enterprise

Medium-sized enterprises don't often experience workers compensation claims. When it does happen, they often need a guiding hand to help manage the process and minimise the impact on their business.

Vero's Medium Enterprise package recognises that these businesses value someone who can manage their workers compensation and assist them to meet their OH&S management obligations so they can get on with their core business.

How Medium Enterprise helps your client

Medium Enterprise assists medium size businesses by being there when your client needs it most. Our team understands the challenges of business and how to guide them through the workers compensation maze.

Medium Enterprise is designed for all employers with a payroll between $500,000 & $1,500,000 who are looking for a partner to take the hassle out of workers compensation.
